

Peter Bond

Senior Advisor to the Director
Brookhaven National Laboratory

Dr. Peter Bond is a recently retired Senior Physicist and Senior Advisor to the Director at Brookhaven National Laboratory (BNL). Dr. Bond came to BNL in 1972. His early career was devoted to a variety of experimental nuclear physics topics including nuclear structure, hyperfine interactions, and reaction dynamics with a focus on the use of heavy ions at low and high energy. In 1987 he was named Chair of the Brookhaven Physics Department and served for 10 years in that capacity. From July 1997 to March 1998 he was the Interim Director of the Laboratory. He spent 1999 at the Office of Science and Technology Policy in Washington, D.C. (the office of the Science Advisor to the U.S. President). He has served in a variety of other roles at BNL, including interim Head of the Information Technology Division from December 2002 to October 2003, interim Associate Director of Life Sciences from January 2005 to April 2006, Interim Deputy Director for Science and Technology from 2004 to 2007, and Interim Associate Director for Nuclear and Particle Physics from 2006 to 2007.
